Greetings Brethren;

This is October and things are winding down for me this year as Master.

As we watch the leaves change color and begin to drop. Things are picking up steam and there is a lot going on this month as well as next and through to the end of the year. We had a few hiccups last month and hopefully that's behind us and we can move forward. We have a few important dates this month that need special mention. We have the District Lodge of Instruction on Tuesday the 4th and we have the 19th District, Grand Lodge of Instruction on Tuesday

October 25th. There is a Riverside Township Community Day on Saturday

October 8th and we have the annual Square & Compass Day on Saturday

October 15. We will also have the pleasure of having as speaker the Junior Grand Warden, RW Gerald Sharpe at our regular communication; he will speak on membership retention and time permitting on dyslexia.

The EA Degree has been rescheduled for the end of the month on the 27th.

I do have to make a correction on last months TB, we collected 36 pints of blood at the Blood Drive, not 26 as I had reported.

Also, very important. We will be having another Lodge Clean-Up Day on the morning of the 15th before we have the Square & Compass. Please make your best effort to come out and help.

P.S. I have added a couple of pictures of my wife Donna who participated in her 7th Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer 3-Day walk in Washington, DC this September. On the first and third day of the walk the Scottish Rite Temple offered their yard for one of the pit stops on the route.

Thank you all.

Sincerely

Peace Profound,

The True Mason

Every true Mason has come into the realization that there is but one Lodge---- that is, the Universe-----and but one Brotherhood, composed of everything that moves or exists in any of the planes of Nature. He realizes that the Temple of Solomon is really the Temple of the Solar Man----- Sol-Om-On----- the King of the Universe manifesting through his three primordial builders. He realizes that his vow of brotherhood and fraternity is universal, and that mineral, plant, animal, and man are all included in the true Masonic Craft.

The true Mason realizes that behind these diverse forms there is one connected Life Principle, the spark of God in all living things.

The true Mason is not creed-bound. He realizes with the divine illumination of his Lodge that as a Mason his religion must be universal: Christ, Buddha or Mohammed, the name means little, for he recognizes the light and not the bearer. He worships at every shrine, bows before every altar, whether in temple, mosque or cathedral, realizing with his truer understanding the oneness of all spiritual truths. They know that all religions are but one story told in divers ways for peoples whose ideals differ but whose great purpose is in harmony with Masonic ideals.

The true Mason must develop the powers of observation. He must seek eternally in all manifestations of Nature for the things which he has lost because he failed to work for them. He must become a student of human nature and see in those around him the unfolding and varying expressions of one connected spiritual Intelligence. The great spiritual ritual of his Lodge is enacted before him in every action of his fellow man.

The true Master Mason enters his Lodge with one thought uppermost in his mind: "How can I, as an individual, be of greater use in the Universal Plan? What can I do to be worthy to comprehend the mysteries which are unfolded here? How can I build the eyes to see the things which are concealed from those who lack spiritual understanding?" The true Light can come only to those who, asking nothing, gladly give all to it.

The true brother of the Craft, while constantly striving to improve himself, mentally, physically, and spiritually through the days of his life, never makes his own desires the goal for his works. He must be ready at any hour of the day or night to drop his own ideals at the call of the Builder. The work must be done and he has dedicated his life to the service of those who know the bonds of neither time nor space. He must be ready at any moment's notice and his life should be turned into preparing himself for that call which may come when he least expects it.

Masonic Humor

During one of the meetings, the JD informs the WM that there was an alarm at the door where upon the WM replied "Attend the alarm and report your findings".

The JD opens the door and see's to his amazement, a brother impeccably dressed with an elaborate apron and jewels about his chest. The Tyler being somewhat slow to answer for the visiting brother, the visitor states; My name is John Smith, PM of my lodge, Past District Deputy of my district, Past Grand Master of my Grand Lodge, Past Sovereign Grand Commander of the Scottish Rite, York Rite Legion of Honor, Past Imperial Potentate of the Shrine of North America, who humbly requests an audience with the WM.

The JD upon hearing these words from the visiting brother and the elaborate apron and jewels upon his chest, immediately closes the door, returns to his post and informs the WM: "Worshipful Master, The Grand Architect of the Universe is at the door" !!!
